MUSICAL INSTRUMENT MUSEUM

Experience a world of music at the Musical Instrument Museum (MIM). This one-of-a-kind museum is home to nearly 15,000 instruments and objects, showcasing music and cultures from every country in the world through over 360 immersive exhibits.

“A premier cultural destination.”
—Chicago Tribune

Be inspired by your favorite musicians.

See, hear, and feel the vibes of instruments played by musical icons including Elvis Presley*, Taylor Swift, Eric Clapton, Roy Orbison, Carlos Santana, and many other celebrities in the Artist Gallery.

Embark on a musical journey.

Spend a day traveling the world through music in MIM's five Geographical Galleries. Using state-of-the-art audio and video technology, you will hear, see, and feel the creative spirit of people from around the world as they play their instruments within their cultural context. Attend a traditional Beijing opera. Celebrate a contemporary Ukrainian wedding. And let the good time roll with Cajun zydeco. At MIM, you will be entertained, engaged, and enthralled.

In MIM's Mechanical Music Gallery, watch the 27-foot-wide Decap mechanical jazz orchestra from Belgium play saxophones, accordions, a xylophone, and a drum kit on its own.

There are always new discoveries to be made at MIM.

Enjoy special exhibitions in the Target Gallery. Women Who Rock: Vision, Passion, Power will open October 19, 2013 and run through April 20, 2014. Please visit MIM.org for ticket information.

Make some music of your own.

Let your imagination come alive as you explore the Experience Gallery where you can bang a gong, strum a Burmese harp, and play unique instruments from around the world.
